Raleigh Housing Authority (RHA). 831-6416

900 Haynes Street, Raleigh

Types of Housing Offered:

- 1. Section 8: is a voucher program where tenants are given a bedroom limit & spending limit to find their own housing within Wake County. Landlords must agree to accept the voucher & follow guidelines (such as repairs / safety). The lease is between the landlord & tenant with issues such as maintaining the unit, following noise restrictions, timely payments, etc. The tenant also signs an agreement with RHA about family size, reporting income, avoiding eviction, etc. An inspection of the unit is done before move in & every year after to assure the landlord has a safe living environment & is charging fair market rate for the unit. Inspections are not following City guidelines, but HUD guidelines. RHA has added some guidelines due to insurance claims not specified by HUD.*
- 2. Public Housing: These are housing units that RHA owns & manages. The wait for this type of housing is 6 months. Examples of these are Walnut Terrace, Kentwood Court, Heritage Park and some housing neighborhoods in Raleigh.*
- 3. Work First Housing Vouchers: This is an agreement between WCHS and RHA. WCHS provides the funds & referrals for section 8 vouchers to be given to families working but not finding affordable housing to sustain them. You must be working for this program & the voucher can be terminated if you are out of work for more than 15 months combined. All other guidelines are the same as the normal section 8 program.*
- 4. Capital Park (old Halifax Court; picture below) and will be the same thing in the old Chavis Heights: These are public housing but you must apply in person to the on-site manager, just as you would apply at other apartment complexes. They are 1,2 and 3 bedroom places. Chavis Heights has not been finished & will probably be renamed just as Halifax Court was.*
- 5. Scattered Sites or Single Family Homes: These are actual homes that RHA has purchased. They are rented out to families that have been working at least 35 hours per week for at least 2 years. After leasing to the family, there is an option to buy the home. Applications for this program are separate from the application for Section 8 or public housing, but are located at the RHA office.*
