PROPERTY TAX RELIEF PROGRAMS

North Carolina offers income based property tax relief programs for homeowners who are at least 65 years of age or totally and permanently disabled. Homes owned by honorably discharged veterans and their unmarried surviving spouses may also be eligible for tax relief.

North Carolina General Statutes allow for certain types of property to be exempt from taxation if they meet the requirements specified by the statutes. Examples include property used for religious, educational, charitable or scientific purposes.

Military personnel on active duty in North Carolina with a home of record in another state may not be subject to personal property and registered vehicle taxes in North Carolina.

Tax deferral programs are available for certain types of property if they meet statutory requirements: agricultural, forest, and horticultural land; wildlife conservation areas; designated historical buildings; and home builder's inventory.

Information on the various programs can be found on our web site at www.wakegov.com/tax. To request an application for one of the tax relief programs, please call our office at (919) 856-5400. Late applications may be considered for good cause through the last day of the calendar year in which the tax is levied. A late application received after the calendar year ends will not be accepted and cannot be considered for approval or denial for any reason or circumstance.
