

Alexander Hawke Series by Ted Bell

Super-spy Alexander Hawke is the descendant of a notorious pirate. Dashing, daring and devastatingly handsome, Hawke is a billionaire adventurer who does "favors" for the U.S. and British governments.

Dirk Pitt Adventures by Clive Cussler

Dirk Pitt, Air Force pilot, trained diver and marine engineer, is the Special Projects director of the National Underwater Marine Agency. His missions involve fast-paced, underwater adventure and international intrigue.

James Bond Series created by Ian Fleming

Begun in the 1950s by Ian Fleming and continued after his death by other authors, this series features James Bond 007, super-spy and ladies' man extraordinaire.

Flashman Series by George MacDonald Fraser

Set in the 19th century, follow the life and swashbuckling adventures of Harry Flashman, adventurer, womanizer, rogue, cad and reluctant hero.

Rogue Warrior Series by Richard Marcinko

After writing his autobiography, this former Navy Seal continued to chronicle his adventures in this fictionalized series featuring warrior Dick Marcinko. Join the Rogue Warrior as he takes on the Russian mob, terrorists and even his superior officers.

Portsmouth: Spies, U-Boats and Romance on the Outer Banks by Edward P. Norvell

In Portsmouth, we follow Kurt Sanger, a German submariner who comes ashore on Portsmouth Island, located just south of Ocracoke. Kurt's assignment is to find out what happened to the U-85 with its Enigma code machine that the Germans did not want to fall into Allied hands. While pretending to be a British officer who survived the sinking of the Bedfordshire, Kurt meets a local girl and falls in love. Through the story of what happens to the couple during and after the war, we learn how wounds heal and how a beautiful place becomes imprinted on the soul.

Mack Bolan Series created by Don Pendleton

When Vietnam veteran Mack Bolan returns home to find that his family has been killed by Mafia kingpins, he begins his war against organized crime in the United States, becoming the Executioner.

Windmills of the Gods by Sidney Sheldon

When Mary Ashley, the young newly appointed U.S. ambassador to an Iron Curtain country, becomes the target of an international cabal's assassination plot, she must discover which of the two men in her life is involved in the plot.

Stone Barrington Mysteries by Stuart Woods

Ex-New York City cop turned private investigator and lawyer Stone Barrington likes fast cars, designer clothes and beautiful women. The Barrington mysteries are fast-paced page-turners filled with adventure and intrigue.

