

Attendees: Courtney Wilson, Tracy Hamilton, Laura Harris, Melissa Forde, Kat Reher, Clif Lavenhouse, Dynasty Winters, Sue Blaeser, Derrick Byrd, Tangela Keaton, DeAnna Jackson, Nicole Lambert, Melvin Jackson, Kevin Parris, Tai Rochelle, Nikki Lyons, Gretchel Hinton, Kristin Feierabend

Welcome, Review Agenda and Meeting Minutes

- Meeting called to order by Priscilla Awkard at 9:30 AM.
- Recruitment for positions will be discussed in the upcoming meetings.

Executive Committee Report

- Diana Powell's resignation from the executive team was accepted.
- Community Day is Friday, July 19th. SEV will need volunteers.
- Open positions include community representative, secretary, etc.
- Community representative positions are for community residents who are involved and active in their communities. It is critically important to have participation reflective of residents in meetings. Please email Stephanie Sims stephanie.sims@wakegov.com or 919-856-6167.

Information Presentation Best Baby Zone- Tracy Hamilton

- Implemented over a three-year span to reduce infant mortality rate and to address health disparities between black births and white births.
- PowerPoint attached

GoTriangle- Andy Willard

- Seniors 65+ can ride Go Transit busses free of charge. <https://goraleigh.org/goraleigh-fares-passes>
- The rebranding of the GoRaleigh ambassador program birthed the GoCrew program. Ages 13 and older can apply. Ambassadors get free bus passes for a year and can staff events, talk to the community about services offered.
- GoTriangle is hiring operators, mechanics, service attendants, etc. Apply online. <https://gotriangle.org/careers>

Social & Economic Vitality Update Verna P. Best, SEV Program Manager

- Community Day is July 19th, 4-8 PM. Urbana Catering will provide catering services. Two panel discussions will be held upstairs, and there will be an opportunity to network.
- The Kaleidoscope Project pollinator beds are going to be in place before Community Day.

- Parking will be in Chavis overflow lot. Resource tables begin setup at 2:30.
- The Grassroots Non Profit Leadership Academy concluded this past week. The grand prize of $5,000 was awarded to Vivian Johnson and the runner up was Angelicia Simmons.
- Part of the SEV team attended the strategic planning meetings the past two days. This will help SEV be more intentional about outlining the roadmap of the initiative.

Partner Updates

- Day 2 Day Dads will be graduating 9 fathers next Thursday. The next cohort begins at the Crosby Garfield Center on Aug 15. Refer a father here: <http://www.frdsa.org/day-2-day-dads-intake-form/>
- Advance Community Health week is Aug 3-10.
- The RESJ Action team will host a Raise the Age Movement Forum tentatively on September 21.

Adjourn

Next CAG meeting: August 20, 2019 9:30 AM