COLLEGE INFORMATION, READING TO DOGS AND REACHING GOALS AT WAKE COUNTY LIBRARIES IN JANUARY

Wednesday, January 4, 12:30–1:30 p.m. – Tai Chi Demonstration

Patrons of all ages are invited to learn about the ancient art of Tai Chi with the Taoist Tai Chi Society in an introductory demonstration at the library. No special equipment is necessary. Comfortable clothing and flat, rubber-soled shoes are recommended. For information, call 919-856-6710. Cameron Village Regional Library is located at 1930 Clark Ave., Raleigh.

Sunday, January 8, 2–4 p.m. – Read to a Dog

Children kindergarten age and older, and their parents, are invited to Eva Perry Regional Library and read a book to dogs from the See Spot Read program. These dogs are trained therapy dogs that, together with their handlers, visit schools and libraries as reading companions for children's reading. For information, call 919-387-2100. Eva Perry Regional Library is located at 2100 Shepherd's Vineyard Drive, Apex.

Monday, January 9, 7–8:30 p.m. – Reaching Goals

Patrons interested in making commitments and reaching their goals are invited to a presentation at North Regional Library. This workshop will show patrons how to move forward in their lives. For information, call 919-870-4000. North Regional Library is located at 7009 Harps Mill Road, Raleigh.

Monday, January 9, 6:30–7:30 p.m. – Teen Advisory Board

Teens in grades 6 through 12 are encouraged to join the Teen Advisory Board at the Richard B. Harrison Community Library. Board members plan teen events, work on volunteer projects and develop leadership skills. For information, call 919-856-5720. Richard B. Harrison Community Library is located at 1313 New Bern Ave., Raleigh.

Wednesday, January 11, 7–8:30 p.m., and Wednesday, January 18, 7–8:30 – Saving our Coast

Patrons interested in North Carolina history are invited to lectures about the state's coastal region at North Regional Library.

- On January 11, Dr. Orrin Pilkey, Duke Professor Emeritus of Geology will present North Carolina's coastal crisis in the global context.

- On January 18, Dr. Stanley Riggs, distinguished Research Professor of Geology at East Carolina University, will focus on the dynamics of state's crisis and the staggering losses projected for the 20 coastal counties due to accelerated sea level rise and storm severity. For information, call 919-870-4000. North Regional Library is located at 7009 Harps Mill Road, Raleigh.

Wednesday, January 18, 6:30–7:30 p.m. – Popcorn Party

Come out for a night of family fun at Green Road Community Library. Patrons will read popcorn stories, make popcorn crafts and, of course, eat popcorn. For information, call 919-790-3200. Green Road Community Library is located at 4101 Green Road, Raleigh.

Tuesday, January 24, 6:30–8 p.m. – Making the Right College Choice

High school juniors and seniors, and their parents, are invited to Southeast Regional Library to get tips on finding the right college or university to attend. With more than 3,000 colleges in the United States, selecting the right school is not an easy task. For information, call 919-662-2250. Southeast Regional Library is located at 908 Seventh Ave., Garner.
