MYSTERY, MURDER AND MAYHEM SET FOR SEPTEMBER

Wake County Public Libraries invites residents to hear three of the area's top mystery writers beginning Friday, September 21, through Monday, September 24.

Mystery writers Deborah Coonts, Nancy Martin and Hank Phillippi Ryan will be discussing their respective works and answering readers' questions.

Raven Award Winner and local advocate for the mystery and suspense genre, Molly Weston, will facilitate the discussions. The programs are free. For information, or to register, contact the specific branch.
