ZEBULON LIBRARY CELEBRATES REOPENING

Zebulon Community Library will reopen on Saturday, June 7, 2014, at 10 a.m. with an all-day open house to welcome back the public. The schedule for the day includes:

Time	Event
10:00 a.m.	Opening and informal greetings by library staff
10:30 a.m.	Family storytime with Librarian Margaret Vaughan
2:00 p.m.	Science-themed performance by Fish the Magish
6:00 p.m.	Library closes for the day

“Zebulon Library has undergone some major changes and we are ready for the community to come see them and enjoy the new pleasant atmosphere,” said Senior Library Manager for Facilities Terri Luke. “We’ve tried to make the library more user-friendly with easier access to the book collection and wireless internet.”

The library closed on Saturday, March 22, 2014, for minor renovations. Along with the accommodations for personal digital devices, the library has been refurbished with carpet, paint, lighting, new furnishings and a new roof and HVAC system. The library’s renovation was part of the 2008 Wake County Capital Improvement Plan.

For more information on the renovation project, contact Library Manager Travis Horton at 919-404-3611 or Terri Luke at 919-463-8505.
