COLLEGE TIPS, LIVE MUSIC, HOLIDAY CRAFTS AND MORE AT LIBRARIES IN NOVEMBER

Exploring the Works of Eleanora E. Tate

In November and December 2015, Wake County Public Libraries will offer a series of programs featuring the books of author Eleanora E. Tate. For over 35 years, Ms. Tate has written inspiring stories for youth that explore and celebrate African American heritage, history and culture. The overarching themes of her stories appeal to both youth and adults. Ms. Tate will be a featured speaker at each program.
