Celebrate Farm Life and Wake's Rural Roots at Historic Oak View Festival

Take a step back in time and celebrate farm life at Historic Oak View County Park's Farm Fest on Oct. 5. The event takes place from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the park, which is located at 4028 Carya Drive in Raleigh.

Bring the whole family out for a fun-filled day and a look back at Wake County's rural and agricultural history. From farm animals and antique equipment to traditional crafts and historical lawn games, Oak View Farm Fest has everything you would expect at an old-timey county fair.

Other features include:

- Agricultural exhibits
- Live music
- Horse-drawn carriage rides
- Cane pole fishing
- Pony rides
- Face painting
- Food vendors

Kids are invited to participate in the Farm Photo Challenge. Just snap a photo at all five locations listed on the event program, show your photos to a staff member and receive a special prize!

Parking will be available at the North Carolina Cooperative Extension, 4001 Carya Drive, or Wake County Commons Building, 4011 Carya Drive. Visitors can walk to the park or catch a ride on the wagon that will be shuttling people back and forth.

For more information, call Historic Oak View County Park at 919-250-1013 or visit wakegov.com/farmfest.
